Now you have a fair idea of what the essay demands and how to select the right topic. Having an interest in certain areas makes topic selection much easier. If I ever ask essay writing service to write my essay, i would give them the free hand to choose the topic. This is because predefined topics tend to be more restricted. Even if you are working with certain topics provided by the instructor, you need to make sure you follow certain rules.

- Research the two or more aspects of the topic that you are writing on. Each side has to be represented equally.
- There is no rule for how many paragraphs are there when comparing and contrasting. However, it is always nice to give equal representation to both similarities and differences. If you write my

essay, I expect there to be a balance. Focussing on just a single aspect is not enough

- Outlining is a great way to easily go through a compare and contrast assignment. Since there might be many similarities or differences, remembering each one is not possible. Best to write down the details.
- Understanding the topic is the key. Sometimes, subtle details can make a huge difference. Read the prompt carefully and then proceed to write about it.

These rules have to be remembered in order to properly craft the next essay writing assignment. It is a matter of practice and the more you practice, the better you will get at it eventually. If you are still confused you can hire online essay writer from SharkPapers.
